

CEER workshop on Regulatory & Market Aspects of Demand Side Flexibility

Monday, 18 November 2013 from 12h30 to 16h00

CEER, Conference Suite, Cours Saint-Michel 30a, 1040 Brussels

AGENDA

12:30 – 13:00	Registration and refreshments
13:00 – 13:15	Introduction and presentation of CEER demand-side flexibility consultation
Opening remarks and organisation of the workshop	Geert Moelker, CEER Electricity Working Group
13:15 – 13:35	Overview of EU ‘Autumn Package’: Guidance on demand response
Presentation: Commission guidance on Demand Response (part of the Delivering the Internal Market ‘Autumn Package’ Communication) Brief Q&A	Jan Panek & Ulrike Nuscheler, European Commission
13:35 – 13:55	Florence School of Regulation (FSR) THINK report “Shift not Drift: towards active demand response and beyond”
Presentation and overview of the FSR THINK report Shift not Drift: Towards Active Demand Response and Beyond Brief Q&A	Xian He, Florence School of Regulation
13:55 – 14:15	SEDC: industry perspective on demand-side flexibility
Presentation from SEDC on industry perspective on demand-side flexibility Brief Q&A	Jessica Strömbäck, Smart Energy Demand Coalition
14:15 – 14:30	Coffee break
14:30 – 14:45	Questions for discussion – CEER consultation on demand-side flexibility
Introducing the deliverable and consultation questions	James Luger & Michaela Kollau, CEER Sustainable Development Task Force
14:45 – 15:45	General discussion on points raised and wider issues of interest
Small group discussion(s) Feedback / summary messages Reactions from panellists to key discussion points
15:45 – 16:00	Summary of discussion, closing remarks and next steps
Closing remarks and next steps	Geert Moelker, CEER Electricity Working Group
16:00	Closing of the workshop