Is there a need for more Transparency?

Secretary General

Name of the Author | Date

- In which area do you use data? (control area or bidding area)
- Which information do you download most frequently? Actual, D-1, W-1, M-1, y-1
- Are you interested into load, capacity or demand of an market area or an area defined on physical principles?

- Which information regarding scheduled exchanges do you practically use? Netted scheduled flows? Directional scheduled flows?
- Schedules how far in the future do you normally consider in your business activities?

- What's your understanding of "real time"?
- Do you use physical or commercial information?
- If real time information is published how would you use it in your business process?

 Are there any obstacles from a competition point of view if sensitive information has to be made transparent to competitors?

e.g. Outages, reduced availability, schedules of operation, ...

- Which information do you seek for when participating in a call for tender for reserves or the balancing market?
- Which are the transparency obstacles for you to participate in balancing markets?

