

‘Pull factors’ in achieving a low carbon energy system: the role of consumers and regulators in enabling demand-side flexibility

Thursday 26 June 2014 from 11h15 to 13h00
Mansholt room, Charlemagne building

Draft Agenda

Registration

11:15 – 11:35 Introduction to CEER’s work on demand-side flexibility

Introduction

Ms Michaela Kollau
Co-Chair, CEER Sustainable Development Task Force

CEER Advice on Ensuring Market and Regulatory Arrangements help deliver Demand-Side Flexibility

Mr Joseph Gildea
CEER Sustainable Development Task Force

11:35 – 12:50 Panel discussion and questions from the floor

Panel Chair

Ms Patricia de Suzzoni
Chair, CEER Customers and Retail Markets Working Group

How can EU policy and tools help facilitate consumer understanding of and participation in demand-side flexibility?

Mr Kyriakos Gialoglou
DG SANCO

How to trigger demand-side response? Case example – Germany

Mr Peter Stratmann
Bundesnetzagentur (BNetzA)

What opportunities does demand-side flexibility offer DSOs; how will this change day-to-day business?

Mr Hans Taus
GEODE

Q&A

12:50 – 13:00 Closing of the workshop

Summary of discussion, next steps and closing remarks

Mr James Luger
Co-Chair, CEER Sustainable Development Task Force

---