WHAT IS THIS COURSE ABOUT?

This course enables Commissioner-level and senior-level staff of National Regulatory Authorities (NRAs) to reflect on their NRA's role and effectiveness in adjusting from post-crisis management to a long-term approach, supporting the energy transition.

This intensive and exclusive one-day onsite programme provides a unique opportunity for participants (Commissioner-level and senior-level NRA staff) to learn and exchange views on the implementation of the Emergency measures as well as contributing to the targets of climate neutrality as set out in the Green Deal and the "Fit for 55" packages. Based on the CEER 2022-2025 Strategy "Empowering consumers for the energy transition", the changing needs for regulation to contribute to the energy transition by adapting their regulatory tools in times of change will be analysed and looked at. The programme offers a first-hand opportunity to learn from fellow senior regulators, policy-makers and energy actors who are directly involved in energy regulatory policy development and implementation.

CEER's training programme is built around three key features:

Practitioner method

2

Regulator centric

3

Collaborative atmosphere

Who should attend

Commissioner-level and senior-level staff of National Regulatory Authorities (NRAs) who want to reflect on their NRA's role and effectiveness in adjusting from post-crisis management to a long-term approach, supporting the energy transition.

Valuable insights

Discussions during the course will cover:

- The roles and challenges for NRAs in implementing the Clean Energy Package
- The state of play of the ongoing legislative processes such as the Gas Decarbonisation Package
- How CEER is progressing through the CEER 2022-2025 Strategy "Empowering consumers for the energy transition"

Key take-aways

Participants in this course will gain a better understanding of:

- The changing role regulators play in contributing to the energy transition;
- Adopting dynamic regulation while following fundamental regulatory principles;
- The longer-term impact of the energy crisis and how to readjust to the long-term approach.

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

WEEK 1

6 NOVEMBER 2023

Individual preparation for the course including literature review, reading materials and preparation of course work.

WEEK 2

CLASS 1 – 10:00-18:00 (CET) ON 14 NOVEMBER 2023

The Executive-Level Seminar comprises three different sessions. The day begins at the European Commission where we will have the first session examining the CEER 2022-2025 Strategy and where we stand post crisis and half-way through the strategy.

The second session, also taking place at the European Commission, involves meeting with Heads of Units from the European Commission's Directorate General for Energy (DG ENER) for discussions on EU policy and legislation and the state of play in ongoing legislative processes.

The final session, which will take place at the CEER Secretariat premises, is centered around dynamic regulation and adapting to the "new normal" and includes a roundtable discussion.
